DAY 1	13-Jul	Reykjavik	Arrival in Reykjavik! Pick up your rental car at the airport. Stop by the Blue Lagoon on your way from the airport (it's on the way, and your hotel won't be able to check in till later). Spend the day getting settled and enjoying the town.
DAY 2	14-Jul	Reykjavik	Golden Circle self drive - drive the Golden Circle today as practice for the rest of your trip. (And if you decide you want a tour, you can always sign up for a coach bus tour last minute - plenty of touist offices in town) Highlights include stunning geysers and waterfalls.
DAY 3	15-Jul	Reykjavik	Sign up for a glacier hike through your hotel, or a horse ride through dried lava fields.
DAY 4	16-Jul	Vik	Start your drive to the south and southeast. End in Vik and see the magical Black Beaches.
DAY 5	17-Jul	Vik	Fjadrárgljúfur canyon; Vatnajökull, the largest National Park in Europe (trail map available from visitors center);Jökulsárlón, the country's stunning iceberg lagoon.
DAY 6	18-Jul	Northeast Iceland	Head to the elusive East Fjords and spend one night to break up the jrouney from the South to the North
DAY 7	19-Jul	Akureyri	Arrive in Akureyvi, the "northern capital"
DAY 8	20-Jul	Akureyri	Lake Mývatn
DAY 9	21-Jul	Akureyri	Husavik- suggested activity: whale watching
DAY 10	22-Jul	Akureyri	Drive down the canyon's eastern side to Dettifoss, Europe's most powerful and awe-inspiring waterfall. From Dettifoss, take the short hike to Selfoss, a more demure but equally interesting cascade along a broad arc. Return to Akureyri
DAY 11	23-Jul	Akureyri	Hiking in Jökulsárgljúfur National Park
DAY 12	24-Jul	Snæfellsjökull	Start the drive and end in the West Fjords.
DAY 13	25-Jul	Reykjavik	Continue exploring the national park Snæfellsjökull. Make sure you're back in Reykavik by the evening, to rest before your last full day in Iceland! Last minute souvenir shopping or other activities.
DAY 14	26-Jul	Departure	Since you have an evening departure, consider booking a puffin watching cruise from your hotel.
